

L3's class pets

Tom and Jerry, two cute mice!

We have visited Newark Library to borrow non-fiction books about mice.

We have learnt about the features of non-chronological reports and some students have written their own reports based on how to look after mice.

The students take it in turns to take the mice home over the weekend.

We all enjoy holding the mice and learning about them.

