

Welcome back everyone!

Wow! That holiday went quickly!! A special warm welcome to our new pupils into school Charlotte, Harry, Peyton & Cole. I hope we all settle in well!

Class 9 Newsletter

Autumn term 2023

freepatternsarea.com

Literacy

Weekly ongoing (key skills) - reading/comprehension/spellings / handwriting.

In English this term Class 9 will be working on:

Non-fiction- newspapers

Fiction- The Many Worlds of Albie Bright

Poetry- related to story and topic

Numeracy

Number- addition, subtraction, multiplication, times tables,
patterns in numbers

Shape and measure-2D and 3D, measuring using units - mm cm
M

Using & applying

Each week pupils will concentrate on specific Maths ensuring that learning is secure. Sessions are varied, practical and fun, with achievable targets.

Topic

Focus work to include:

History- The Space Race

Geography- Natural resources

Science- earth in space

Art- pattern

D&T- building bridges-junk modelling

RE- symbols and religious expression

Relationship & Sex Edmental well-being & caring friendships

PE will be on Fridays. We will send kit home when it needs washing.

Termly topics

To infinity and beyond! (1st half term)

What a wonderful world (2nd half term)

There will be a 'Pupil of the Week' assembly on Fridays. Our achievements are celebrated across the school and certificates are given to pupils who staff feel have earned it the most. Not always easy when our students are all as fabulous as they are!