

Happy New Term!!!

We hope you all had a good Easter.

This newsletter will inform you of some of the wonderful things your child will be doing this term during our topics are 'Why are there super heroes in our garden?' and 'How to train your dragon'

Class 10 Newsletter

SUMMER TERM
2025

Literacy

Weekly ongoing key skills- reading/comprehension/spellings / handwriting and Read, Write Inc phonics

In Love of reading this term Class 10 will be working on fiction and non-fiction books based on insects

We will also be looking at him poetry and learning about their features.

Non-Fiction - information text

Numeracy

Number- all four operations, patterns in numbers

Shape- measure, 2d and 3d shapes, understating and using positional language

Data handling- creating charts and answering questions

Each week pupils will concentrate on specific Maths ensuring that learning is secure. Sessions are varied, practical and fun, with achievable targets.

Science- properties and changes to materials

Art- sculpture

D&T- Hats

RE- Christianity-beliefs and questions

Relationship & Sex Ed-

Online behaviour/changing adolescent body

PE- Rounders/Outdoor & adventure

PE will continue to be on Fridays.

We have a 'Pupil of the Week' assembly every Friday to celebrate our pupil successes across the school.